You are invited to join together for a hui to celebrate Pasifika in the Top of the South, and experience local stories, music, dance, and food.

The hui will introduce people from the local Pasifika community who will tell their stories of their experiences. Teams will have the opportunity to work through the Pasifika Education Plan 2013—2018 and determine ways forward of how to implement the plan in their centres, schools and kindergartens. Everyone will experience language, art, music and storytelling and learn ways to share these with all tamariki.

All teachers will leave with a kete of resources gathered throughout the day, and all teachers will have the opportunity to experience each of the four workshops throughout the day.

The kaupapa of the day is to be informative, practical, and above all, fun.

Where— Nayland Primary School
When— Thursday 9 October, 8.45am to 3.30pm
Cost— $55 per person (inclusive of GST)
